Greene County Community Foundation awards more than $4,000 in local grants

For immediate release – 11/6/17

The board of advisors of the Greene County Community Foundation announces $4,210 in local grant awards from its community grantmaking fund, according to Michael Rhodes, board president.

This year's nonprofit recipients are:

- $510 to Girl Scouts - North Carolina Coastal Pines for the Greene County girl scout leadership experience
- $1,300 to Greene County Public Library for early literacy skills for toddlers and preschoolers
- $1,100 to Muscular Dystrophy Association for summer camp
- $1,300 to Prevent Blindness North Carolina for Star Pupils Greene County

Rhodes thanked the community for its support of the Greene County Community Foundation. "These grants are important to our community and our quality of life," he said. "Critical programs would not be possible without the generosity of many individuals and organizations that have supported Greene County's community fund."

About the Greene County Community Foundation

The Greene County Community Foundation was founded in 2004 and is an affiliate foundation of the North Carolina Community Foundation. GCCF is led by a local volunteer advisory board that helps build community assets through the creation of permanent endowments, makes grants and leverages leadership – all for the benefit of Greene County. In addition to Rhodes, board members include: Ray Holloman (vice-president), Randy Davis (secretary-treasurer), Christie Mozingo (immediate past president), Nina Paul Vinson (grant chair), Susan Beaman, Kathleen Bussell, Faith Bynum, Erika Churchill, Judy Davenport, Laquita Davis, Rick Davis, Vanessa Hardy, Beth Moye, Dora Pasour, Rebecca Pate and Jody Tyson.

About the North Carolina Community Foundation

The NCCF is the single statewide community foundation serving North Carolina and has administered more than $130 million in grants since its inception in 1988. With nearly $247 million in assets, NCCF sustains 1,200 endowments established to provide long-term support of a broad range of community needs, nonprofit organizations, institutions and scholarships. The NCCF partners with a network of affiliate foundations to provide local resource allocation and community assistance across the state. An important component of NCCF's mission is to ensure that rural philanthropy has a voice at local, regional and national levels.
